MARSDEN VS. WILLING.

The Nurseryman Knocks Out the Commissioner in Short Order.

Mr. Carl Willing, keeper of the Government Nursery, and Mr. Jos. Marsden, Commissioner of Forestry and Agriculture, met in a fistie encounter this morning. It is reported that since Mr. Marsden was appointed Commissioner by the Provisional Government Mr. Willing has taken a disliking to him. Willing was in town yesterday and is said to have let fall some nasty remarks to a few friends which boded no good to Marsden. This morning when the gentlemen met a few hot words were exchanged which ultimately resulted in a hand-to-hand conflict. Marsden struck Willing a stinging blow over the right eye, raising a pretty respectable shanty thereon, and knocking him down. Willing quickly recovered his legs and, being a powerful man as well as his antagonist, gave Marsden a severe pummeling, the marks of which are apparent on his countenance.

It is rumored around town that a warrant will be issued for the arrest of Willing on a charge of assault and battery, but up to the time of going to press no such a document had been issued.

Cost and Construction of the Nicaragua Canal.

The cost of the work has been variously estimated; the latest I have seen, and I believe it to be the highest, is $27,000,000. The company engaged in its construction proposes to raise in same way $100,000,000—an excess of $13,000,000 above the estimated cost—to pay interest till the canal is in operation, and to provide for contingencies that may arise. The sum is not large if the patronage the canal shall receive proves to be anything like what is predicted and seems probable. There are differences of views as to how the canal shall be constructed and controlled when in operation. As it will prove most advantageous to our own commerce, and as under public control excessive profits will not be made on the money invested, there is a prevailing sentiment that the Government should build it, and manage it after it is built; that it should be free to American shipping, and a tax imposed on foreign nations only to an extent that is necessary to pay the expense of management and repair and a reasonable income on the cost of construction.—Richard H. McDonald, Jr., in My Californian.

The promptness and certainty of its cures have made Chamberlain's Cough Remedy famous. It is intended especially for coughs, colds, croup and whooping coughs, and is the most effectual remedy known for these diseases. Mr. C. B. Main, of Union City, Pa., says: "I have a great sale on Chamberlain's Cough Remedy. I warrant every bottle and have never heard of one failing to give entire satisfaction." 50 cent bottles for sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Trusts and Combinations

Are unpopular. But there is one form of trust against which no one has anything to say. That is the trust which the public reposes in Hood's Sarsaparilla, and the best of it is the trust is fully justified by the merit of the medicine. For, remember, Hood's Sarsaparilla Cures.

COURT CHRONICLE.

Circuit Term—Ashford and the Judge.

Geo. Summers and A. Harris, burglary. Wilder and Davidson for prosecution; C. W. Ashford for the defense. Begun yesterday afternoon; still on trial. This is the Cartwright residence burglary.

C. W. Ashford has filed a petition in the Clerk's office of the Judiciary Department, praying the Supreme Court to issue a writ of prohibition forbidding the Circuit Court and Judge Cooper to take any further cognizance of the case of August Herring, charged on the calendar of the May term with murder. The grounds in the petition are the alleged defects in the indictment and, as in the plea to jurisdiction now pending in the Supreme Court on appeal from Judge Whiting, the lack of authority of the Judge finding the indictment and presiding at the term. It is claimed that Judge Cooper was not appointed by any person or persons having any power or authority to appoint him under the constitution and laws of this nation; also, that he was disqualified from taking the office, because he was then and theretofore a member of the national Legislature of the Hawaiian Islands. Chief Justice J. A. King, in the matter with the following endorsement on the petition: "Having carefully read and examined the petition and exhibits herein, I decline to allow the writ prayed for, as not raising questions to which the writ would apply."

W. A. Kinney has been retained as counsel with J. A. Magoon for plaintiff in the breach of promise suit of Alice Ayers against William Mahuka, which cause has been granted a new trial by the Supreme Court. It will be remembered that Mr. Kinney was one of the several lawyers for plaintiff in a similar suit in 1887 against the late W. M. Gibson, in which a verdict was awarded to Flora Howard St. Clair for damages amounting to $10,000. In the suit now pending between Miss Ayers and Wm. Mahuka, counsel for plaintiff have filed a motion that they be allowed to inspect all letters from plaintiff to the defendant. Counsel are now inspecting what letters so far have been produced by the defendant.

F. H. Hayselden has filed a petition in the Circuit Court to be appointed administrator of the estate of W. J. Roche, deceased, intestate. There is nothing but about $200 worth of personal property to be administered.

TWO EDITORS IN COURT.

Preliminary Examination of Messrs. Bush and Kenyon.

The libel suit against Mr. J. E. Bush came up first in the District Court this afternoon.

The Attorney-General offered the certificate of Ka Leo.

Morris Keohokale, clerk in the Interior Office, was the first witness and testified to the fact of Mr. Bush's having filed certificate of publication.

T. C. Porter, Minister of Finance, stated that one bond of $1000 was sold for 98 when the par value was $100 to Bruce Cartwright for compromise of road damages for an estate; no other bonds have been sold since I have been there; no record of sales by P. G. below par; following is the list of all sales: April 27, $1000 at par; April 28, $6000 at par; May 2, $1000 at 99½. We had the money for bonds about one month previous, and the difference of interest made it equivalent to par; May 8, $1000 at 98, as above stated. I think the amount of Postal bonds issued is $21,000, Treasury notes $11,000, at 6 percent, outstanding. The bonds had been sold with the accrued interest.

Recalled: Have been Minister of Finance since March 16.
Henry Waterhouse, sworn, stated: Am subscriber for the paper. Read it regularly. Read paper of May 12 containing the article, "He Pilikia." The case was continued for argument until Thursday morning, a translation of the article in the meantime to be furnished to counsel for the defense.

C. Crighton, A. P. Peterson and J. L. Gault for defendant.
In re G. Carson Kenyon, libel against John L. Stevens, C. Crighton, counsel for defense, with A. P. Peterson, waived examination and asked that his client be not placed against behind the bars under "imperative orders" until he could get a bail bond prepared. The magistrate assured counsel that nothing of the kind would be done, as also did the Attorney-General.

While Mr. T. J. Richey, of Altona, Mo., was traveling in Kansas he was taken violently ill with cholera morbus. He called at a drug store to get some medicine and the druggist recommended Chamberlain's Colic, Cholera and Diarrhoea Remedy so highly he concluded to try it. The result was immediate relief, and a few doses cured him completely. It is made for bowel complaint and nothing else. It never fails. For sale by all dealers. Benson, Smith & Co., Agents for the Hawaiian Islands.

Expediting Justice—"The jury was unusually quick in rendering the verdict, wasn't it?" "Yes. We got up a dog fight on side of the court house,"—Judge.

"And is the air healthy here?" asked a visitor at a mountain resort. "Excellent, sir, excellent. One can become a centenarian here in a little while."—Tid-Bids.
